WICKS

Held for Next Criminal Court
Grand Jury by Justice
S. W. Gordon.

Lester Wicks was given a hearing in Justice S. W. Gordon's court Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock for breaking a red signal lantern which was placed over a trench which workmen had dug in Sycamore street to place a water pipe in. The warrant was sworn out by an employee of the J. I. Dick Company who saw Wicks break the lantern. Wicks was held for the next criminal court grand jury under a $200 bond, and in default of it he was sent to jail.
